

Using your Watchlist

- Error

The provided source article ("Book:User manual 3.1 - incomplete draft") does not exist.

Using your WatchList

---

The watchlist of BlueSpice enables you to keep an eye on articles and pages you're especially interested in. Just add a page to the list, and you will always be informed on any changes made to it.

Where to find the WatchList

Open your user menu in the top right corner of the screen. Click on Watchlist to open it.

How to add a page to your WatchList

---

You can put an article or any other page of the wiki onto your watchlist either

- by calling up the page and clicking the star icon in the header, or
- by editing the page and ticking the Watch this page box.
