

Manual:Template/Template package

A quality version of this page, approved on 30 July 2020, was based off this revision.

Below is a set of templates which you can import into your wiki.

Instructions

1. Download the package as zip file.
2. Unzip the archive.
3. Go to the special page `Special:Import` on your wiki (this page is only visible to users with admin rights).
 - Select the individual template file you want to upload or AllTemplates.xml to upload all templates.
 - Enter a Interwiki prefix. Since this field is required for the upload, you can simply enter en.
 - Select "Template" from the import to a namespace select menu.

The templates are now available in your wiki and can be added using the Insert > Template function of Visual Editor.

Wikis as Knowledge Base Wikis are created to collect and collaboratively enhance information or update knowledge. Different contributors are assigned tasks to reach their goals. As the time goes by, the knowledge base and their available information resources increase, and more resources are available. Content Management Content management (CM) is a set of processes and techniques that supports the collection, managing, and publishing of information in a medium. Wikis store and access content collaboratively; this information may be more specifically relevant to digital content, or simply to content.
